

April Prayer 2009

Dear Women of the Worldwide Prayer Web,

Today is Day #1, in the London City meeting of heads of nations, representing the major key players (in a human sense) of the world. According to the news, there is already disagreement among them and the meeting hasn't begun. While you won't get this today, I am sure you must be praying for this current event. One of the signs of His soon coming, according to Jesus Himself, is discord and trouble between the Nations of the Earth. (Matt. 24, important to read and makes great prayer material)

And while fear and insecurity are common throughout the world, God is actively at work, and has never forsaken His creation.

“I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good and pleases God our Savior, who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.”

I Tim. 2:1-4

This is our commission and command as women whom God has called to prayer. And, all over the world, God is raising up His prayer force. In the current magnitude, this is a new thing God is doing. Do what He tells you to do, because the most important and worthwhile thing you do is pray. When we don't pray, we work out our human solutions...when we pray, God works, the One who is Omnipresent, Omnipotent, and Omniscient, and while you and I are uninvited to that meeting and could not be around the tables...God, whether invited or not, is present when matters concern the human race of people who are His, created by Him for His glory. Our prayers matter to Him and to our world. Someday we will see this clearly. We are the “gap” people,

I am sending along an article for your encouragement, and some prayer matters.
Don't grow discouraged or weary...pray on....pray on.

You fellow intercessor, L.E.
